MUSKOGEE SALOON SITUATION.

State Enforcement Authorities Take a Hand in It.

Muskogee, Dec. 13.—Special Enforcement Attorney Caldwell says: "If there is wilful violation of the prohibition laws in Muskogee by the city officials of if there is wilful negligence on their part in enforcing the law steps will be taken to send them to the penitentiary. "If necessary I shall come to Muskogee myself to take charge of the situation. "As well as a criminal suit, civil proceedings may be instituted to oust

Mayor Martin and his police assistants from office. This means business.

Mayor Martin says: "Muskogee city is getting big enough to regulate its own internal government without state or county assistance. "Since both state and county have failed to enforce the prohibition law and the state officers insist upon the city handling the liquor situation we propose to handle it in our own way.

"I do not propose to enforce the prohibition law unless some compensation in the form of licenses or otherwise comes into the city treasury. In the face of a 31 mill levy my duty does not point that way."

Fatally Shot at Enid.

Enid, Ok., Dec. 13.—About 8 o'clock last evening a man named J. E. Throckmorton was shot and probably mortally wounded while attempting to escape from an officer. The shooting took place at a time when the street was crowded with people, the officer firing three shots. The wounded man is in the hospital and not expected to live but a few hours. The bullet entered his back and passed completely through him.

Number of Insurance Agents.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 12.—There are 13,722 insurance agents in Oklahoma according to the last number of licenses issued today by Insurance Commissioner McComb. This will give the state an insurance agent for each 120 people except for the fact that sometimes the same man takes out several licenses for different insurances.

SHOT INTO HOUSE

Otto Willard, a negro, is in jail, charged with shooting into the house of J. H. Gilbert, four or five miles from Ada.

The shooting into the house of Gilbert, occurred on the night of Nov. 30th, and the bullet which went through a crack, barely missed the head of Gilbert and his daughter.

It is known that one other negro was with Willard, and the tracks around the house indicated the presence of three.

Willard was recently arrested and his case came up this morning before Esq. Brown, and it is still being heard this evening.

There is possibly more in this case than appears on the surface. It seems that Willard and his companions were attempting to frighten away Gilbert and dared him outside of the house. He refused to go, but said he would kill the first one who entered the door.

It is believed the negroes intended to assault the daughter of Gilbert, if he could have once been gotten in their power.

Some of the witnesses who are testifying, claim to be frightened at some of the relatives of Willard, whom they think might do them bodily injury.

ASSAULT AND MURDER.

Young Man Under Arrest Charged With Crime.

Columbia, Ky., Dec. 13.—The excitement in the eastern end of this (Adair) county over the murder of Miss Mamie Womack culminated in the arrest of James Hill, a white man, near the little town of Sano. The officers had been looking for Hill for some time since the murder and found him last night asleep at the home of a relative. He was taken before County Judge Dunbar at the latter's country home and given an immediate preliminary hearing. Judge Dunbar held him without bail. Immediately afterward Hill was hurried away to Jamestown for safe keeping.

Talk of lynching has been growing hourly and the jailer at Jamestown has been warned that there is danger of a mob forming in the eastern end of Adair county tonight. The motive for the murder was criminal assault, Miss Womack being dragged into a wood near a lonely road and her skull crushed after her assailant had assaulted her.

The Supposed Favorites.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 12.—From a Guthrie standpoint State Senator Clint Graham of Marietta is now the favorite in the race for president pro tem of the state senate, and Representative L. P. Ross of Lawton seems to lead for speaker of the house of representatives.

Senator T. F. Memminger of Atoka is developing a strong following from the southwestern part of the state, and Senator Strain of Wannay is in the running.

Senator Graham, it is claimed, will go into the caucus of the senate Saturday before the legislature convenes with an organized support and a probable majority of the old members of the senate. He is known as an administration man, and will have the support of the friends of the governor.

If Senator Graham is selected Representative McCalla of Love, now in the race for speakership of the house of representatives, being from the same locality, may drop out of the race for speaker. As Mr. McCalla is one of the strongest members of the lower house, and as his selection as speaker before the senate caucus would have prevented the selection of Senator Graham as a candidate for president pro tem of the senate, it is here considered a very good piece of politics for Senator Graham that the senate caucus is called for Saturday, or two days before the caucus of the house of representatives.

New O. C. Traffic Manager.

B. M. Halle has been appointed traffic manager of the Oklahoma Central, headquarters at Purcell, Ok. Joseph P. O'Donnell having resigned the office of general freight and passenger agent is abolished according to a circular sent out by Dorset Carter, general manager.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Ten Men Killed and Fifty Were Wounded.

Colon, Dec. 12.—A giant blast of dynamite, already prepared for firing, was prematurely exploded in the workings at Bas Obispo today. Ten men were killed and fifty injured. It may be that others have been killed, for the debris is piled up in all directions. The cut is about thirty miles from Colon and the shock of the explosion was distinctly felt here.

Numerous reports are current as to the cause of the accident, but the official version from Culebra, which gives an estimate of ten killed and fifty wounded, says that during the loading of the blast the dynamite in this cutting was discharged, and the remaining twenty-two tons were exploded by concussion.

Fatal Fight at Tulsa.

Tulsa, Ok., Dec. 13.—As the outcome of a fight in which weapons were used Oliver Marshbank died at the Tulsa hospital tonight. The tragedy occurred six miles south of Catoosa yesterday. Late last night the wounded man was brought to the Tulsa hospital. An arrest was made in the case.

Barnsdall in Paper Field?

Muskogee, Ok., Dec. 13.—It is reported here that Theodore Barnsdall, the Pittsburg millionaire whose name has been connected with the Standard oil and Indian Territory Illuminating Companies, has acquired a controlling interest in the Phoenix, a morning republican paper.

Independent oil and gas men take the rumored deal as indicative of Barnsdall's efforts to acquire complete control of interests necessary to assure a complete domination of the Oklahoma oil and gas field.

Oklahoma City Follows Suit.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 13.—Since the receipt of a report to the effect that saloons were running at Muskogee, intoxicating liquors are being sold over at least fifteen bars constructed for temporary use. Those interested here declare they have the same privilege to sell liquor as they have at Muskogee, and have no fear of the law.

Wealthy Negro Killed.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 13.—R. C. Graves, an negro worth $15,000, was shot and killed early today.

A softer answer may turn away wrath, but it is a powerful encouragement to a book agent.

Try the Weekly News as a means of reaching the people in Pontotoc county, whom you desire to inform of the bargains you have to offer in goods.

Those merchants who use the advertising columns of the Daily and Weekly News are enjoying a good trade. It will pay you to give them the preference when you desire to buy anything.

A walk over Ada will show completed sidewalks in every direction and others being put in. This is a great addition to the beauty of Ada, as well as a convenience much appreciated by pedestrians.

Merchants of Ada are selling more goods than they ever did before, and the reason is not hard to find. Ada merchants carry large, well assorted stocks of goods and they sell them at low prices, at least those who advertise, do this.

Ada is getting cotton from a greater distance than it has ever done before. The reason is easily explained. Ada has the compress, the cotton seed oil mill and cotton buyers who pay the highest possible market price.

It is dollars to doughnuts that Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas entered the senate chamber a much smaller man in his estimation than when he entered at the last session.—Denison Herald.

For the good name and reputation of the grand old state he partly represents, it is to be trusted that he has been benefitted by his unenviable experience at the last session of congress.

PRESS COMMENT.

Hanging altogether means the making of a live town. To hang all apart on public questions means that you will have a chance to figuratively hang by yourself later in the day.—Wilburton News.

The man who passes by a safety pin on the sidewalk instead of taking the trouble to pick it up is bound to know what regret is before he is very much older.—Houston Post.

To grow old gracefully, to find the heart becoming more mellow with the passing years is something everyone should seek after. Such a life's evening is like a lovely sunset whose parting rays and glorious tints flood the earth with beauty.—Frederick Leader.

It is said that there is a proposition on foot to assess each of the state officers at Guthrie a certain amount for the purpose of sustaining a press bureau at that place during the session of the legislature. As the work of the press bureau has been carried out in the past, its principal purpose seems to have been to "boom" a few politicians, and it has not met with much favor with the democratic press of the state, most of the papers having about them too much independence to accept ready-made opinions sent out from headquarters. If the same methods are to be followed in the future, the officials would do well to save their money to buy Christmas presents. Most of the democratic editors of the state are competent to run their own papers, without dictation from any press bureau.—Purcell Register.

Wise Democratic Counsel.

If the democrats of Oklahoma are wise they will profit by the experience of the democrats of Missouri. Some years ago Missouri showed republican symptoms. But the democratic politicians simply poohpoohed at the idea. Meanwhile Missouri republicans went to work. They organized the state, the counties, the precincts. They sought to locate republican farmers from Iowa and Illinois in the state. They maintained an aggressive press bureau at the state capital and mercilessly flayed the democrats when they committed errors. The democrats remained dormant, sure of their majority. And then came the landslide of four years ago when Folk was almost the only democratic survivor. That should have been enough to have aroused the militant democracy of Missouri—but it wasn't. "Only an accident. Wait until Bryan runs again and we'll show 'em." And so they slept while the enemy worked. And this November they awoke from their sleep to discover that the state had gone republican again—gone for Taft and Hadley. Now the democrats of Missouri will have an uphill fight to regain the state for the republicans are flushed with victory and will grow fat and strong on the offices. Oklahoma is on the same political road as Missouri—one corresponding to the one Missouri had four years ago. It is up to us democrats to profit by it. We must do it now. The state committee should get in touch with the organization in every county that has one and see that it is made better. It must organize every county that has no organization.

A grass roots organization can save this state to democracy, but nothing short of this will do it. New people are coming to live here. A majority of them may prove to be republicans. This fact needs to be ascertained, at any rate. If our poll shows losses they must be made up there or elsewhere.

The old-time principles of democracy are right and ought to prevail, but it will take vigorous organization work to make them win. The place to begin is at home.—Vinita Leader.

The Elimination of the "Seasons."

The Christmas magazines have been out for ten days or two weeks. They will be flat, stale and unprofitable when Christmas really comes. The New Year's magazines will be sold and "dog-eared" before the first of January. The "Easter number" will come by the middle of Lent.

And so it goes. We have nothing in season any more, unless it may be green corn on the cob. We have fresh tomatoes all the year round. We have strawberries—such as they are—in the dead of winter. Lettuce is as common, if not so cheap, in January as in June. Everything is out of joint. Nothing bears, any longer, the stamp of its right season. There is no "first mess" now of anything to wait for with happy expectation. New potatoes and fresh apple sauce used to help out the din and the dread of the Fourth of July. Nothing is left now of that anniversary but its clamor and nerve torture.

Spring chickens? Who has seen or tasted an honest, authentic spring chicken in years! Cold storage has done for spring chickens and all of the delight they used to bring.

Winter is turned into summer and summer into winter. There are no seasons any more. The world is so keen and eager to alter the course of nature that it has wiped out all of the lines and right and sensible divisions that once gave to the products of each period of the year its greatest worth and value.

There are no seasons—no set times for this or that the other thing any longer—more's the pity.—Kansas City Times.

Jobs Men Yield to Women.

William Hurd in December Everybody's: Today in the stogy factories of Pittsburgh there are 2,211 women and only 463 men. And in three particularly large "trust" factories, in which the last word in cheap, quick production has been spoken, there are 1,025 women and exactly ten men.

On the one hand there is the male hand stogy maker. He just takes tobacco leaves and with his own hands, without the help of machines or even of tools (except knife and clip), constructs, all by himself, a complete smoke. It took him a long time to learn how to do that. On the other hand, the most nearly perfected type of the team and machine process, which is taking his place, and which makes of his single, complete operation a triple one.

The girl who brings the process is not a stogy maker at all. She is only a "bunch breaker." With the help of her machine she gives the inside filler leaves of the stogy their first outside covering, the "binder." The second outside covering, the "wrapper," is still to be put on.

Then the half-dressed stogies, instead of being "shaped" deftly and delicately by the finger tips of a craftsman, are crushed and squeezed into form by "molds" and "presses."

The finishing touches are put on by a most ingenious machine called a "suction table." It is full of little holes through which currents of air, sucked downward, straighten out the tobacco leaf and hold it taut and flat while a die, descending, cuts it into exactly the right size. The "suction table" (Mr. Ruskin would have called it a vampire) sucks the last few drops of blood from the art and craft of stogy making. The girl at the "suction table" takes the piece of tobacco designed for her by the machine and "rolls" it around the half finished stogy, giving it its "wrapper" and thus completing it.

Two girls and three machines have now done what one man did before. They have not done it so well, but they have done it faster and cheaper. And there you have a little social revolution happening before your eyes. Women have driven men into a corner in the stogy trade in Pittsburgh and they have done it through their natural affinity with the most modern, the most mechanical and automatic, the most simplified and cheapened factory process.

That "Monte Cristo" still holds its own and sways its old fascination over the theatre going public is proven by the remarkable success of Wm. H. Lemle as Edmund Dantes in Fred G. Conrad's production of that play. Mr. Lemle is now in his third season appearing in that part and bids fair to rival Mr. Chas. Fechter and James O'Neal in reputation of Dumas' romantic hero. PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT REPLIES.

Explains Panama Purchase in Special Message.

Washington, Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt today completed the final draft of a long statement on the subject of the Panama Canal controversy, and sent it to the government printing office to be put in type. It is expected that it will go to congress in the form of a special message at once.

In this the president is understood to answer all the allegations which have been made against the regularity and propriety of the purchase of the canal, including the statements that Americans participated in sharing the purchase money. He wants the fullest light thrown on the matter. It is his desire that no one should be shielded. If he can not get at the facts by a trial for criminal libel, he wants them brought out by a congressional investigation. His friends declare that he wants the truth known and is confident it will confound the critics.

Vote for President.

New York, Dec. 13.—According to figures compiled by the New York Times the vote for Taft in the recent election was 7,659,688 (7,623,486 for Roosevelt in 1904). The democratic vote is given at 6,450,690; 5,077,971 four years ago.

According to the table the socialist vote was less this year than in 1904, the respective figures being 401,506 and 402,288. Fewer votes were cast for the prohibition candidates, the count standing 228,014 last fall, against 258,536 in the last presidential year.

In a few instances, says the Times, these figures are not final. But in every instance it is declared they are the best that can be obtained prior to the publication of the official canvasses, and will differ from the original figures very slightly, if at all.

Soldiers to Parade.

Washington, Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt is preparing to make president Taft's inauguration the greatest military spectacle ever attempted on such an occasion, according to an announcement made here today. Four thousand soldiers returned from Cuba and an equal number of sailors from the big cruise will participate.

General Barry and admiral Sperry will head the forces.

Treasurer Menefee to Quit Politics.

Guthrie, Ok., Dec. 13.—State Treasurer Menefee will retire from politics upon conclusion of his term in January, 1911, and re-engage in the banking business. At what point Mr. Menefee will locate has not been announced. He was a member of the last Territorial senate and treasurer of the democratic campaign during the constitutional convention delegate election. Under the constitution the governor, the treasurer, the auditor and the secretary of state are not eligible to re-election. They as well as other state officers have four year terms.

Gossip around the state house has picked the governor as a candidate for congress from one of three congressional districts, and as a candidate for United States senator. State-makers, however, have not disturbed the auditor or the secretary of state.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL AT MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA (Selected.)

In this rapidly growing city of 25,000 people there is not a hospital building the property of any hospital association. It will be easily understood that the need for a hospital is very great. The Oklahoma Baptist Hospital Association has been organized and chartered. It has purchased and paid for a splendid site near the center of the city and lacks less than $3,000.00 of having sufficient funds to erect the first wing of a hospital building. Nearly all that has been given thus far has come from the Baptists of Muskogee and their friends in that city. The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma at its last session gave its hearty endorsement to this enterprise and gave over the month of November to raising the necessary $3,000.00. If this is accomplished the Baptists of Oklahoma will have property valued at $10,000.00 free from incumbrance. They will have the sympathy and cooperation of the people of the eastern part of the new state. The future success of the enterprise will be assured. Failure to do this will cause them to lose $7,000.00 already secured and this splendid opportunity will pass into the hands of others. The limits of this article do not permit the stating of the conditions that explain this situation.

In the judgement of the writers, there is no place where the amount of $3,000.00 will gain more for the future of the denomination in Oklahoma, nor where the lack of it will mean greater loss to it, than this one.

If any of our friends in Oklahoma, or elsewhere, are interested in helping us found this institution and save the situation to the Baptists of this new country where development is to be so rapid, and thus conserve the interest of our entire denomination in hospital work, we will be glad to communicate with them and furnish any information that may be desired.

Will not those who have been made stewards of their Lord's money give us their cooperation at this time?

Brothers Die at Same Hour, But Long Ways Apart.

Mason City, Dec. 13.—Since the death of John Amundson, clerk of the court-elect, of Emmet county, relatives are telling of a strange relationship existing between this popular official and his brother, Dr. O. C. Amundson, an equally popular physician and surgeon of Oklahoma. When children they were almost inseparable.

They did not look alike, act alike, tastes were different, loves different and when it came to choice of professions one took the business life with its activities, the other that of medicine. But since the day when they were children let one get hurt and the other, whether separated by miles of country or they were together in the same house, would sense the pains just as acutely as the one who had received the injury. All through life this was true. One was never sick unless the other was sick. And strange to say the time of coming down with any illness was only separated by minutes, not hours nor days.

The strangeness of it all was frequently mentioned around the table at home but it could not be explained and it would be dismissed on the grounds that it was only another coincidence that it just chanced to be. But with the two brothers there was a strange feeling always existing. They loved each other more as a young man would love his sweetheart. There was an intensity in their love. When John was taken sick at his home at Estherville the very first thought was wonder if Dr. is sick down in Oklahoma, a thousand miles away. And sure enough Dr. was thinking the same thing, and soon a message was flashed northward announcing the doctor's serious illness, but before the wires could carry the word back the doctor had passed away to his long home, without knowledge even of the illness of his brother. Just a few minutes after the death of the doctor, brother John followed him to the other world. In explanation of the causes producing the above strange phenomena science and philosophy stand back amazed.

Clapp was married and had three children. Barnhart surrendered.

German Emperor Said to Be Insane.
Berlin, Dec. 12.—What the Germans dare not whisper has been said by a well known German physician in an English weekly paper—the Kaiser is hopelessly and progressively insane. The article, which is of course unsigned, or the author would probably be drawn and quartered, has created an enormous sensation throughout Germany.

Hearst Emissary Investigating.
Muskogee, Okla., Dec. 12.—S. McReynolds, special representative of William R. Hearst, is here investigating Governor Haskell's connection with various promotion schemes. McReynolds is preparing evidence for the defense in the Haskell-Hearst libel suit. He has been in Oklahoma two weeks.

No Sunday School Job.

Kansas City, Dec. 12.—"Democrats were too timid in the last campaign. They must be more vigorous if they win future political campaigns." Charles N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma, made the foregoing statement in a speech before the Young Men's Democratic club here today. "Sunday school principles," he said, "would not win political fights." Governor Haskell made no mention of the attacks made upon him in the campaign.

MUSKOGEE SALOON SITUATION.

State Enforcement Authorities Take a Hand in It.
Muskogee, Dec. 13.—Special Enforcement Attorney Caldwell says: "If there is wilful violation of the prohibition laws in Muskogee by the city officials or if there is wilful negligence on their part in enforcing the law steps will be taken to send them to the penitentiary."
"If necessary I shall come to Muskogee myself to take charge of the situation."
"As well as a criminal suit, civil proceedings may be instituted to oust

Mayor Martin and his police assistants from office. This means business.

Mayor Martin says: "Muskogee city is getting big enough to regulate its own internal government without state or county assistance."
"Since both state and county have failed to enforce the prohibition law and the state officers insist upon the city handling the liquor situation we propose to handle it in our own way."
"I do not propose to enforce the prohibition law unless some compensation in the form of licenses or otherwise comes into the city treasury. In the face of a $1 mill levy my duty does not point that way."

Fatally Shot at Enid.

Enid, Ok., Dec. 13.—About 8 o'clock last evening a man named J. E. Throckmorton was shot and probably mortally wounded while attempting to escape from an officer. The shooting took place at a time when the street was crowded with people, the officer firing three shots. The wounded man is in the hospital and not expected to live but a few hours. The bullet entered his back and passed completely through him.

Number of Insurance Agents.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 12.—There are 13,722 insurance agents in Oklahoma according to the last number of licenses issued today by Insurance Commissioner McComb. This will give the state an insurance agent for each 120 people except for the fact that sometimes the same man takes out several licenses for different insurances.

SHOT INTO HOUSE

Otto Willard, a negro, is in jail, charged with shooting into the house of J. H. Gilbert, four or five miles from Ada.

The shooting into the house of Gilbert, occurred on the night of Nov. 30th, and the bullet which went through a crack, barely missed the head of Gilbert and his daughter.

It is known that one other negro was with Willard, and the tracks around the house indicated the presence of three.

Willard was recently arrested and his case came up this morning before Esq. Brown, and it is still being heard this evening.

There is possibly more in this case than appears on the surface. It seems that Willard and his companions were attempting to frighten away Gilbert and dared him outside of the house. He refused to go, but said he would kill the first one who entered the door.

It is believed the negroes intended to assault the daughter of Gilbert, if he could have once been gotten in their power.

Some of the witnesses who are testifying, claim to be frightened at some of the relatives of Willard, whom they think might do them bodily injury.

ASSAULT AND MURDER.

Young Man Under Arrest Charged With Crime.

Columbia, Ky., Dec. 13.—The excitement in the eastern end of this (Ada) county over the murder of Miss Mamie Womack culminated in the arrest of James Hill, a white man, near the little town of Sano. The officers had been looking for Hill for some time since the murder and found him last night asleep at the home of a relative. He was taken before County Judge Dunbar at the latter's country home and given an immediate preliminary hearing. Judge Dunbar held him without bail. Immediately afterward Hill was hurried away to Jamestown for safe keeping.

Talk of lynching has been growing hourly and the jailer at Jamestown has been warned that there is danger of a mob forming in the eastern end of Adair county tonight. The motive for the murder was criminal assault, Miss Womack being dragged into a wood near a lonely road and her skull crushed after her assault had assaulted her.

The Supposed Favorites.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 12.—From a Guthrie standpoint State Senator Clint Graham of Marietta is now the favorite in the race for president pro tem of the state senate, and Representative L. P. Ross of Lawton seems to lead for speaker of the house of representatives.

Senator T. F. Memminger of Atoka is developing a strong following from the southwestern part of the state, and Senator Strahl of Waukey is in the running.

Senator Graham, it is claimed, will go into three caucuses of the senate Saturday before the legislature convenes with an organized support and a probable majority of the old members of the senate. He is known as an administration man, and will have the support of the friends of the governor.

If Senator Graham is selected Representative McCalla of Love, now in the race for speakership of the house of representatives, being from the same locality, may drop out of the race for speaker. As Mr. McCalla is one of the strongest members of the lower house, and as his selection as speaker before the senate caucus would have prevented the selection of Senator Graham as a candidate for president pro tem of the senate, it is here considered a very good piece of politics for Senator Graham that the senate caucus is called for Saturday, or two days before the caucus of the house of representatives.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Ten Men Killed and Fifty Were Wounded.

Colon, Dec. 12.—A giant blast of dynamite, already prepared for firing, was prematurely exploded in the workings at Bas Obispo today. Ten men were killed and fifty injured. It may be that others have been killed, for the debris is piled up in all directions. The cut is about thirty miles from Colon and the shock of the explosion was distinctly felt here.

Numerous reports are current as to the cause of the accident, but the official version from Culebra, which gives an estimate of ten killed and fifty wounded, says that during the loading of the blast the dynamite in this cutting was discharged, and the remaining twenty-two tons were exploded by concussion.

Fatal Fight at Tulsa.

Tulsa, Ok., Dec. 13.—As the outcome of a fight in which weapons were used Oliver Marshbank died at the Tulsa hospital tonight. The tragedy occurred six miles south of Catoosa yesterday. Late last night the wounded man was brought to the Tulsa hospital. An arrest was made in the case.

Barnsdall in Paper Field.

Muskogee, Ok., Dec. 13.—It is reported here that Theodore Barnsdall, the Pittsburg millionaire whose name has been connected with the Standard oil and Indian Territory Illuminating Companies, has acquired a controlling interest in the Phoenix, a morning republican paper. Independent oil and gas men take the rumored deal as indicative of Barnsdall's efforts to acquire complete control of interests necessary to assure a complete domination of the Oklahoma oil and gas field.

Oklahoma City Follows Suit.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 13.—Since the receipt of a report to the effect that saloons were running at Muskogee, intoxicating liquors are being sold over at least fifteen bars constructed for temporary use. Those interested here declare they have the same privilege to sell liquor as they have at Muskogee, and have no fear of the law.

Wentley Negro Killed.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 13.—R. C. Graves, an negro worth $15,000, was shot and killed early today.

It is said that there is a proposition on foot to assess each of the state officers at Guthrie a certain amount for the purpose of sustaining a press bureau at that place during the session of the legislature. As the work of the press bureau has been carried out in the past its principal purpose seems to have been to boom a few politicians and it has not met with much favor with the democratic press of the state. Most of the democratic editors of the state are competent to run their own papers without dictation from any press bureau—Purcell Register

Wise Democratic Counsel.

If the democrats of Oklahoma are wise they will profit by the experience of the democrats of Missouri. Some years ago Missouri showed republican symptoms. But the democrats of the state simply poohpoohed the idea. Meanwhile Missouri republican went to work. They organized the state the counties the precincts. They sought to locate republican farmers from Iowa and Illinois in the state. They maintained an aggressive press bureau at the state capital and mercilessly flayed the democrats when they committed errors. The democrats remained confident sure of their majority. And then came the landslide of four years ago when folk was almost the only democratic survivor. That should have been enough to have aroused the militant democrats of Missouri—but it wasn't.

Only an accident. Wait until Bryan runs again and well show em. And so they slept while the enemy worked. And this November they awoke from their sleep to discover that the state had gone republican again—gone for Tift and Hadley. Now the democrats of Missouri will have an uphill fight to regain the state for the republicans are flushed with victory and will grow fat and strong on the offices Oklahoma is on the same political road as Missouri—one corresponding to the one Missouri had four years ago. It is up to us democrats to profit by it. We must do it now. The state committee should get in touch with the organization in every county that has one and see that it is made better. It must organize every county that has no organization

A grass roots organization can save this state to democracy but nothing short of this will do it. New people are coming to live here. A majority of them may prove to be republicans. This fact needs to be ascertained at any rate. If our poll shows losses they must be made up there or elsewhere

The old-time principles of democracy are right and ought to prevail but it will take vigorous organization work to make them win. The place to begin is at home—Vinita Leader

The Elimination of the "Seasons."

The Christmas magazines have been out for ten days or two weeks. They will be flat stale and unprofitable when Christmas really comes. The New Year's magazines will be sold and dog-eared before the first of January. The Easter number will come by the middle of Lent

And so it goes. We have nothing in season any more unless it may be green corn on the cob. We have fresh tomatoes all the year round. We have strawberries—such as they are—in the dead of winter. Lettuce is as common if not so cheap in January as in June. Everything is out of joint. Nothing bears any longer the stamp of its right season. There is no first mess now of anything to wait for with happy expectation. New potatoes and fresh apple sauce used to help out the din and the dread of the fourth of July. Nothing is left now of that anniversary but its clamor and noise torture

Spring chickens? Who has seen or tasted an honest authentic spring chicken in years? Cold storage has done for spring chickens and all of the delight they used to bring

Winter is turned into summer and summer into winter. There are no seasons any more. The world is so keen and eager to alter the course of nature that it has wiped out all of the lines and right and sensible divisions that once gave to the products of each period of the year its greatest worth and value

There are no seasons—no set times for this or that the other thing any longer—more the pity—Kansas City Times

Jobs Men Yield to Women.

William Hurd in December. Every body's. Today in the stogy factories of Pittsburgh there are 2211 women and only 163 men. And in three particularly large blast furnaces in which the hot work in cheap quick production has been spoken there are 1928 women and exactly ten men

On the one hand there is the machine. On the other hand there is the man. The machine is a complete smoke. It took him a long time to learn how to do that. On the other hand the most nearly perfected type of the team and machine process which is taking his place and which makes of his single complete operation a triple one

The girl who brings the process is not stogy maker at all. She is only a bunch breaker. With the help of her machine she gives the machine filler leaves of the stogy their first outside covering the under the second outside covering the wrapper is still to be put on

Then the half dressed stogies instead of being shaped deftly and delicately by the finger tips of a craftsman are crushed and squeezed into form by molds and presses

The finishing touches are put on by a most ingenious machine called a suction table. It is full of little holes through which currents of air sucked downward straighten out the tobacco leaf and hold it flat and flat while a die descending cuts it into exact the right size. The suction table (Mr. Ruskin would have called it a vampire) sucks the last few drops of blood from the air and craft of stogy making. The girl at the suction table takes the piece of tobacco designed for her by the machine and rolls it around the half finished stogy giving it its wrapper and thus completing it

Two girls and three machines have now done what one man did before. They have not done it so well but they have done it faster and cheaper. And there you have a little social revolution happening before your eyes. Women have driven men into a corner in the stogy trade in Pittsburgh and they have done it through their natural affinity with the most modern the most mechanical and automatic the most simplified and cheapened factory process

Brothers Die at Same Hour, But Long Ways Apart.

Mason City, Dec. 13.—Since the death of John Amundson, clerk of the court-elect, of Emmet county, relatives are telling of a strange relationship existing between this popular official and his brother, Dr. O. C. Amundson, an equally popular physician and surgeon of Oklahoma. When children they were almost inseparable.

They did not look alike, not alike, tastes were different, loves different and when it came to choice of professions one took the business life with its activities, the other that of medicine. But since the day when they were children let one get hurt and the other, whether separated by miles of country or they were together in the same house, would sense the pains just as acutely as the one who had received the injury. All through life this was true. One was never sick unless the other was sick. And strange to say the time of coming down with any illness was only separated by minutes, not hours nor days.

The strangeness of it all was frequently mentioned around the table at home but it could not be explained and it would be dismissed on the grounds that it was only another coincidence that it just chanced to be. But with the two brothers there was a strange feeling always existing. They loved each other more as a young man would love his sweetheart. There was an intensity in their love. When John was taken sick at his home at Esherville the very first thought was wonder if Dr. O. C. Amundson was in Oklahoma, a thousand miles away. And sure enough Dr. O. C. Amundson was thinking the same thing, and soon a message was flashed northward announcing the doctor's serious illness, but before the wires could carry the word back the doctor had passed away to his long home, without knowledge even of the illness of his brother. Just a few minutes after the death of the doctor, brother John followed him to the other world. In explanation of the causes producing the above strange phenomena science and philosophy stand back amazed.

Roadhouse, Ill. Dec. 13.—William Barnhart, a switchman on the Chicago and Alton railroad, late last night shot and killed his bride of three months, and then walked to the Roadhouse Hotel, where he killed Carl Clapp, an elevator agent. Clapp was married and had three children. Barnhart surrendered.

German Emperor Said to Be Insane.
Berlin, Dec. 12.—What the Germans are not whisper has been said by a well known German physician in an English weekly paper—the Kaiser is hopelessly and progressively insane. The article, which is of course unsigned, or the author would probably be drawn and quartered, has created an enormous sensation throughout Germany.

Kansas City, Dec. 12.—"Democrats were too timid in the last campaign. They must be more vigorous if they win future political campaigns."

Charles N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma, made the foregoing statement in a speech before the Young Men's Democratic club here today. "Sunday school principles," he said, "would not win political fights." Governor Haskell made no mention of the attacks made upon him in the campaign.

MUSKOGEE SALOON SITUATION.

State Enforcement Authorities Take a Hand in It.

Muskogee Dec 13—Special Enforcement Attorney Caldwell says "If there is wilful violation of the prohibition laws in Muskogee by the city officials of if there is wilful negligence on their part in enforcing the law steps will be taken to send them to the penitentiary. "If necessary I shall come to Muskogee myself to take charge of the situation. "As well as a criminal suit civil proceedings may be instituted to oust

Mayor Martin and his police assistants from office. This means business.

Mayor Martin says Muskogee city is getting big enough to regulate its own internal government without state or county assistance.

Since both state and county have failed to enforce the prohibition law and the state officers insist upon the city handling the liquor situation we propose to handle it in our own way.

I do not propose to enforce the prohibition law unless some compensation in the form of licenses or otherwise comes into the city treasury. In the face of a 31 mill levy my duty does not point that way.

Fatally Shot at End.

End Ok Dec 13—About 8 o'clock last evening a man named J. E. Throckmorton was shot and probably mortally wounded while attempting to escape from an officer. The shooting took place at a time when the street was crowded with people. The officer firing three shots. The wounded man is in the hospital and not expected to live but a few hours. The bullet entered his back and passed completely through him.

Number of Insurance Agents.

Guthrie Okla Dec 12—There are 17,722 insurance agents in Oklahoma according to the last number of licenses issued today by Insurance Commissioner McComb. This will give the state an insurance agent for each 120 people except for the fact that sometimes the same man takes out several licenses for different insurances.

SHOT INTO HOUSE

Otto Willard a negro is in jail charged with shooting into the house of J. H. Gilbert four or five miles from Ada.

The shooting into the house if Gilbert occurred on the night of Nov. 30th and the bullet which went through a crack barely missed the head of Gilbert and his daughter.

It is known that one other negro was with Willard and the tracks around the house indicated the presence of three.

Willard was recently arrested and his case came up this morning before Esq. Brown and it is still being heard this evening.

There is possibly more in this case than appears on the surface. It seems that Willard and his companions were attempting to frighten away Gilbert and dared him outside of the house. He refused to go but said he would kill the first one who entered the door.

It is believed the negroes intended to assault the daughter of Gilbert, if he could have once been gotten in their power.

Some of the witnesses who are testifying claim to be frightened at some of the relatives of Willard, whom they think might do them bodily injury.

ASSAULT AND MURDER.

Young Man Under Arrest Charged With Crime.

Columbia Ky Dec 13—The excitement in the eastern end of this (Adair) county over the murder of Miss Mamie Womack culminated in the arrest of James Hill a white man near the little town of Sano. The officers had been looking for Hill for some time since the murder and found him last night asleep at the home of a relative. He was taken before County Judge Dunbar at the latter's country home and given an immediate preliminary hearing. Judge Dunbar held him without bail immediately afterward Hill was hurried away to Jamestown for safe keeping.

Talk of lynching has been growing hourly and the rumor of Jamestown has been spread that there is danger of a mob forming in the eastern end of Adair county tonight. The motive for the murder was criminal assault. Miss Womack being dragged into a wood near a lonely road and her skull crushed by her assailant had assaulted her.

The Supposed Favorites.

Guthrie Okla Dec 12—From a Guthrie standpoint State Senator Clint Graham of Muskogee is now the favorite in the race for president pro tem of the state senate and Representative L. P. Ross of Lawton seems to lead for speaker of the house of representatives.

Senator T. F. Memminger of Atoka is developing a strong following from the southwestern part of the state and Senator Strain of Wagoner is in the running.

Senator Graham it is claimed will go into three caucuses of the senate Saturday before the legislature convenes with an organized support and a probable majority of the old members of the senate. He is known as an administration man and will have the support of the friends of the governor.

If Senator Graham is selected Representative McCalla of Love now in the race for speakership of the house of representatives being from the same locality may drop out of the race for speaker. As Mr. McCalla is one of the strongest members of the lower house and as his selection as speaker before the senate caucus would have prevented the selection of Senator Graham as a candidate for president pro tem of the senate it is here considered a very good piece of politics for Senator Graham that the senate caucus is called for Saturday, or two days before the caucus of the house of representatives.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Ten Men Killed and Fifty Were Wounded.

Colon Dec 12—A giant blast of dynamite already prepared for firing was prematurely exploded on the workings at Bas Obispo today. Ten men were killed and fifty injured. It may be that others have been killed, for the debris is piled up in all directions. The cut is about thirty miles from Colon and the shock of the explosion was distinctly felt here.

Numerous reports are current as to the cause of the accident, but the official version from Culebra which gives an estimate of ten killed and fifty wounded says that during the loading of the blast the dynamite in this cutting was discharged and the remaining twenty-two tons were exploded by concussion.

Fatal Flight at Tulsa.

Tulsa Ok Dec 13—As the outcome of a fight in which weapons were used Oliver Marshbank died at the Tulsa hospital tonight. The tragedy occurred six miles south of Catoosa yesterday. Late last night the wounded man was brought to the Tulsa hospital. An arrest was made in the case.

Barnsdall in Paper Field?

Muskogee Ok, Dec 13—It is reported here that Theodore Barnsdall the Pittsburg millionaire whose name has been connected with the Standard oil and Indian Territory Illuminating Companies, has acquired a controlling interest in the Phoenix a morning republican paper. Independent oil and gas men take the rumored deal as indicative of Barnsdall's efforts to acquire complete control of interests necessary to assure a complete domination of the Oklahoma oil and gas field.

Oklahoma City Follows Suit.

Oklahoma City Ok Dec 13—Since the receipt of a report to the effect that saloons were running at Muskogee intoxicating liquors are being sold over at least fifteen bars constructed for temporary use. Those interested here declare they have the same privilege to sell liquor as they have at Muskogee and have no fear of the law.

Wealthy Negro Killed.

Try the Weekly News as a means of reaching the people in Pontotoc county whom you desire to inform of the bargains you have to offer in goods.

Those merchants who use the advertising columns of the Daily and Weekly News are enjoying a good trade. It will pay you to give them the preference when you desire to buy anything.

A walk over Ada will show completed sidewalks in every direction and others being put in. This is a great addition to the beauty of Ada as well as a convenience much appreciated by pedestrians.

Merchants of Ada are selling more goods than they ever did before and the reason is not hard to find. Ada merchants carry large well assorted stocks of goods and they sell them at low prices at least those who advertise do this.

Ada is getting cotton from a great distance than it has ever done before. The reason is easily explained. Ada has the compress the cotton seed oil mill and cotton buyers who pay the highest possible market price.

It is dollars to doughnuts that Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas entered the senate chamber a much smaller man in his estimation than when he entered at the last session—Democrat Herald.

For the good time and reputation of the good old state he truly represents it is to be trusted that he has been benefitted by his previous experience at the last session of the legislature.

PRESS COMMENT.

Hanging altogether means the making of a live town. To hang all upon public questions means that you will have a circus figuratively hang by your ears later in the day—Wilburton News.

The man who passes by a safety pin on the sidewalk in lead or taking the trouble to pick it up is bound to know what respect is before he is very much older—Houston Post.

To grow old gracefully to find the heart becoming more mellow with the passing years is something everyone should seek after. Such a life's evening is like a lovely sunset whose parting rays and glorious tints flood the earth with beauty—Frederick Leader.

It is said that there is a proposition on foot to assess each of the state officers at Guthrie a certain amount for the purpose of sustaining a press bureau at that place during the session of the legislature. As the work of the press bureau has been carried out in the past its principal purpose seems to have been to boom a few politicians and it has not met with much favor with the democratic press of the state. Most of the democratic editors of the state are competent to run their own papers without dictation from any press bureau—Pittsburg Register.

Wise Democratic Counsel.

If the democrats of Oklahoma are wise they will profit by the experience of the democrats of Missouri. Some years ago Missouri showed republican symptoms. But the democratic politicians simply poohpoohed at the idea. Meanwhile Missouri republicans went to work. They organized the state the counties the precincts. They sought to locate republican farmers from Iowa and Illinois in the state. They maintained an aggressive press bureau at the state capital and mercilessly flayed the democrats when they committed errors. The democrats remained dormant sure of their majority. And then came the landslide of four years ago when Folk was almost the only democratic survivor. That should have been enough to have aroused the militant democrats of Missouri—but it wasn't.

Only an accident. Wait until Bryan runs again and well show em. And so they slept while the enemy worked. And this November they awoke from their sleep to discover that the state had gone republican again—gone for Tritt and Hadley. Now the democrats of Missouri will have an uphill fight to regain the state for the republicans are flushed with victory and will grow fat and strong on the offices Oklahoma is on the same political road as Missouri—one corresponding to the one Missouri had four years ago. It is up to us democrats to profit by it. We must do it now. The state committee should get in touch with the organization in every county that has one and see that it is made better. It must organize every county that has no organization.

A grass roots organization can save this state to democracy but nothing short of this will do it. New people are coming to live here. A majority of them may prove to be republicans. This fact needs to be ascertained at any rate. If our poll shows losses they must be made up there or elsewhere.

The old-time principles of democracy are right and ought to prevail but it will take vigorous organization work to make them win. The place to begin is at home—Vinita Leader.

The Elimination of the "Seasons."

The Christmas magazines have been out for ten days or two weeks. They will be flat stale and unprofitable when Christmas really comes. The New Year's magazines will be sold and dog-eared before the first of January. The Easter number will come by the middle of Lent.

And so it goes. We have nothing in season any more unless it may be green corn on the cob. We have fresh tomatoes all the year round. We have strawberries—such as they are—in the dead of winter. Lettuce is as common if not so cheap in January as in June. Everything is out of joint. Nothing bears any longer the stamp of its right season. There is no first mess now of anything to wait for with happy expectation. New potatoes and fresh apple sauce used to help out the din and the dread of the Fourth of July. Nothing is left now of that anniversary but its clamor and nerve torture.

Spring chickens? Who has seen or tasted an honest authentic spring chicken in years? Cold storage has done for spring chickens and all of the delight they used to bring.

Winter is turned into summer and summer into winter. There are no seasons any more. The world is so keen and eager to alter the course of nature that it has wiped out all of the lines and right and sensible divisions that once gave to the products of each period of the year its greatest worth and value.

There are no seasons—no set times for this or that the other thing any longer—more the pity—Kansas City Times.

Jobs Men Yield to Women.

William Hurd in December. Every body's. Today in the stogy factories of Pittsburg there are 2213 women and only 163 men. And in three particularly large trust factories in which the last word in cheap quick production has been spoken there are 1025 women and exactly ten men.

On the one hand there is the machine that makes the stogy. He just takes tobacco leaves and with his own hands without the help of machines or even of tools (except knife and clip) constructs all by himself a complete smoke. It took him a long time to learn how to do that. On the other hand the most nervy perfected type of the term and machine process which is taking his place and which makes of his single complete operation a triple one.

The girl who brings the process is not stogy maker at all. She is a bunch breaker. With the help of her machine she gives the unsde filler leaves of the stogy their first outside covering the under the second outside covering the wrapper is still to be put on. Then the half dressed stogies instead of being shaped deftly and delicately by the finger tips of a craftsman are crushed and squeezed into form by molds and presses.

The finishing touches are put on by a most ingenious machine called a suction table. It is full of little holes through which currents of air Governor Haskell made no mention of the attacks made upon him in the campaign.
